(* delete as appropriate)

<Note 1> : Pursuant to section 14C(10)(c) of the MRO, the specified person means a person who–

- (i) has been engaged in full-time employment as a medical practitioner with limited registration in one or more than one specified institution for a total of at least 5 years;
- (ii) has been awarded a Fellowship of the Academy of Medicine in a specialty, or has been certified by the Academy of Medicine to have completed the training, and obtained the qualification, comparable to that required of a Fellow in specialty by the Academy; and
- (iii) has been certified by the Academy of Medicine to have satisfied the continuing medical education requirements for the specialty.

- <Note 2> : Although the registered address may be a practising address, a residential address or a Post Office Box number, the applicant is advised to provide the practising address as the registered address. The practising address will be of more meaningful reference for the public in ascertaining who is entitled to practise medicine in Hong Kong, and will also afford privacy to the practitioner's residential address as the registered address is published in the Gazette (which is also available in the Government's e-Gazette website).
- <Note 3> : While publication of the registered medical practitioner's registered address in the Gazette is a mandatory requirement under the Medical Registration Ordinance, the Medical Council has decided that a registered medical practitioner may choose whether to have his/her registered address published in the Council's website.
- <Note 4> : Employing Institutions should be one of the Specified Institutions as set out in Schedule 1B of the MRO, i.e. Department of Health, Hospital Authority, the University of Hong Kong and the Chinese University of Hong Kong.
- <Note 5> : If there is any such conviction, finding of professional misconduct, or criminal or disciplinary proceedings, full details must be provided.

Personal Information Collection Statement

Purpose of Collection

The personal data you provide will be used for purposes directly related to your application for registration as a registered medical practitioner with special registration. It is voluntary for you to provide your personal data. However, if you do not provide sufficient information, we may not be able to process your application.

Disclosure to the Public

2. In accordance with section 15 of the Medical Registration Ordinance, the Registrar of Medical Practitioners shall publish in the Gazette annually a list of the names, addresses, registration numbers, and other particulars he/she considers appropriate, of all persons whose names appear on Part I, III or V of the General Register on 1 January immediately preceding the publication of the list in the Gazette. The Registrar of Medical Practitioners shall also publish in the Gazette annually a list of the names, addresses, registration numbers, and other particulars he/she considers appropriate, of all persons whose names were added to Part I, III or V of the General Register between 1 January and 1 July of such year. The main purpose of such publication is to inform the public who is, or is not, registered as a medical practitioner, and who is entitled to practise medicine.

3. The information published in the Gazette will also be published in the website of the Medical Council of Hong Kong. You have the option to indicate whether you agree or refuse to have your registered address published in the Medical Council's website. Any subsequent change of option should be notified in writing to the Registrar of Medical Practitioners, and the change will be reflected in the next update of the website information.

Transfer to Others

4. The personal data you provide will be used mainly by the Medical Council of Hong Kong. They may also be disclosed to other persons, bodies or authorities for the purposes set out in paragraph 1 above or in circumstances permitted under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance.

Access to Personal Data

5. You have a right to request access to and correction of your personal data held by us. A fee may be charged for such access or correction. Request for access or correction should be made in writing to:
