

Application for sitting the National Qualification

Examination for Doctors (國家醫師資格考試)

in the Mainland

Under the “Mainland and Hong Kong Closer Economic Partnership Arrangement” (“CEPA”), Hong Kong permanent residents who are eligible to practice western medicine in Hong Kong are allowed to sit the Mainland’s National Qualification Examination for Doctors. Detailed information concerning the Examination can be obtained from the website of National Medical Examination Center at <http://www.nmec.org.cn>.

Applications for sitting the 2020 National Qualification Examination are now called for by the National Medical Examination Center. All applicants for this year’s examination are required to submit their applications online. Details of the examination and online application form are available on the website of the National Medical Examination Center at <http://www.nmec.org.cn>. The application closing date is 21 January 2020. Applicants who have already submitted their applications online before the closing date are required to submit the supporting documents in person to the Medical Council Secretariat for vetting and onward submission to the National Medical Examination Center on or before 7 February 2020.

Please click here for information in relation to submission of supporting documents to the Medical Council. For enquiries and appointments, please contact the Secretariat of the Licentiate Committee of the Medical Council at 2873 4742 or via email at mc-exam@dh.gov.hk.
